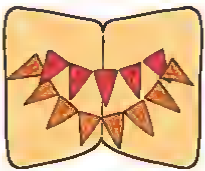
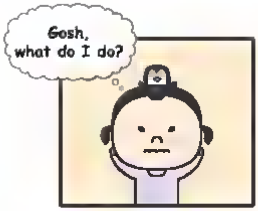
A Birthday Event: Part 1



Mev's birthday was coming

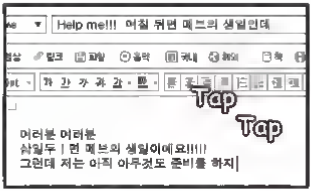
I thought about it for a while.

As Mev didn't have any idea what he wanted,...



it was really hard to plan

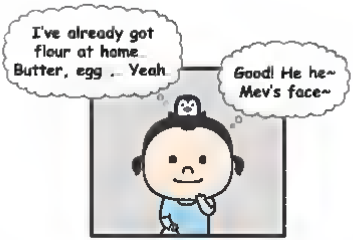
So,



I decided to ask people
if they had any good ideas.

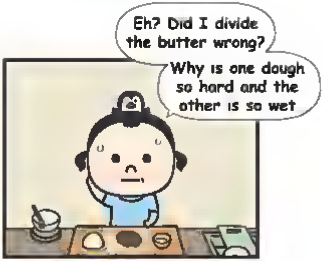
Thankfully,
many people suggested many good things,
so I could make up my mind.

I planned to prepare a few of small gifts.



One of them was some cookies of Mev's character face

Two days before his birthday,
I started to make the cookie.



Eh? Did I divide the butter wrong?
Why is one dough so hard and the other is so wet

These are the eyes
This is the nose and..

The process wasn't very smooth.

Bip bip bip bip-

Who....

Who are you?

Damn it..
